Try an alternative mode to DRCOG

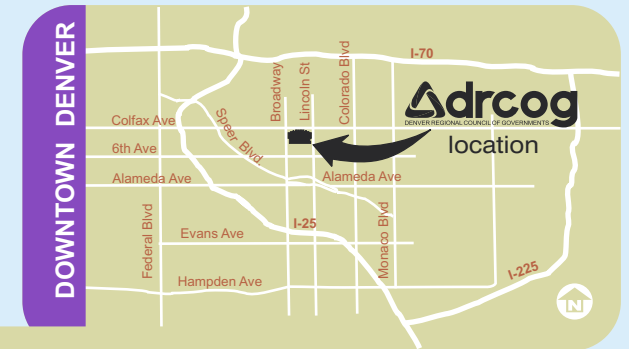

If you are coming to the DRCOG office, please consider a variety of alternatives to driving alone.

DRCOG's office is easily accessible by a host of transit routes, with convenient stops along Lincoln and Broadway. Since routes and schedules change, please visit the RTD website for the latest transit information – www.rtd-denver.com. If you're new to transit, RTD has other aids to help you give transit a try.

You may also want to consider carpooling to meetings.

There are several B-Cycle station locations near DRCOG. Check out www.denver.bicycle.com for locations and membership information.

The nearby Cherry Creek Trail offers pedestrian and bicycle connections as well.
