

A share in the future of the

Denver Region

The bearer of this certificate enjoys a full share in the future of the Denver region and in the benefits derived from the buildout of the transit system therein. The bearer also accepts a full share of the responsibility in ensuring the buildout of said system is leveraged to achieve those benefits and all members of this community enjoy full access to the mobility, economic, housing, health and other opportunities created by transit.

Done this day, April 7, 2015

Denver Region Sustainable Communities Initiative Consortium

