DENVER REGIONAL COUNCIL OF GOVERNMENTS HONORS PAT CRONENBERGER WITH A DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

DENVER – Pat Cronenberger received a Distinguished Service Award from the Denver Regional Council of Governments (DRCOG). The award was presented by DRCOG Chair Elise Jones at DRCOG’s annual awards celebration, April 27 at the Westin Denver International Airport.

“Pat Cronenberger has demonstrated consistent leadership and a commitment to make life better for people, not only in her community of Littleton, but throughout the DRCOG region,” said Jennifer Schaufele, DRCOG executive director.

Cronenberger has served Littleton and the region for many years. She was elected to the Littleton City Council in 1987, and then elected mayor of Littleton, serving from 1997-99. She served on the DRCOG Board of Directors and later worked for the organization as its Board and Legislative Liaison. Cronenberger chaired the Telecommunications Task Force of the Metro Mayors Caucus, served on the National League of Cities, and was a Transit Alliance board member.

DRCOG presents Distinguished Service Awards to individuals who make significant contributions to the Denver region and its communities, and to DRCOG’s programs and activities. The regional council has been honoring outstanding achievements for more than 30 years.

The Denver Regional Council of Governments is a planning organization where local governments collaborate to establish guidelines, set policy and allocation finding in the areas of:

- Transportation and personal mobility
- Growth and development
- Aging and disability resources
