

AGENDA

Into the Weeds: Planning for Marijuana

9:30 a.m. to noon

May 12

Denver Regional Council of Governments
1290 Broadway; Denver, CO 80203

Meeting Objectives:

- Learn about local communities':
 - licensing processes
 - use of zoning to regulate marijuana and
 - lessons learned regarding licensing and zoning since the recreational use of marijuana has been legal under Colorado law
- Discuss the next frontier in regulating marijuana-based uses: cannabis clubs
- Hear about the Department of Local Affairs' Marijuana Impact Grant Program

9:30-9:45 Welcome and Introductions

Anna Garcia, regional planner, Denver Regional Council of Governments

Brad Calvert, Metro Vision manager, Denver Regional Council of Governments

9:45-11:05 Guest Speaker Panel

Tim Mauck, commissioner and Fred Rollenhagen, community development director, Clear Creek County

Kristian Teegardin, mayor, City of Edgewater

Stephanie Carlile, deputy city clerk, City of Englewood

Tamra Norton, marijuana impact grant program manager, Colorado Department of Local Affairs

11:05-11:55 Discussion

11:55-noon Wrap-up and Next Steps

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

Tim Mauck

County commissioner, Clear Creek County

tim@timmauck.com

Tim Mauck was elected to the Clear Creek Board of County Commissioners in 2010 and reelected in 2014. As a commissioner, he has focused on economic development, enhancing Clear Creek's recreation and tourism industries and bringing about sensible development strategies to improve transportation along the Interstate 70 Mountain Corridor. Notable achievements include revitalization of the Clear Creek Tourism Bureau, crafting a multiyear development agreement with the Colorado Department of Transportation for I-70, supporting more than $6 million for constructing a recreational path through the county and funding an affordable housing program in Clear Creek County. Tim has made workforce housing, local transportation and enhancing health care in Clear Creek County top priorities for his second term. Tim also serves on the boards of the Clear Creek Fire Authority and Denver Regional Council of Governments. He is founding chair of the Clear Creek Greenway Authority and co-chair of the I-70 Coalition Board.

Fred Rollenhagen

Community development director, Clear Creek County

frollenhagen@co.clear-creek.co.us

Fred Rollenhagen has spent his career working as a public sector rural planner for more than 18 years, mostly in Clear Creek County, first as a planner and then as a manager. Fred is the community development director and oversees comprehensive and current planning, permitting, code enforcement, GIS, and special projects for the county commissioners. Fred is the alternate representing the non-MPO area on DRCOG's Transportation Advisory Committee, and also sat on the Metro Vision Planning Advisory Committee in 2013 and 2014. Fred has a bachelor's in geography from the University of Northern Colorado. He is a member of the American Planning Association and the Denver Mining Club, LTD which includes membership in the Colorado chapter of the International Order of Ragged Ass Miners.

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

Kristian Teegardin

Mayor, City of Edgewater
kteegardin@edgewaterco.com

Kristian Teegardin serves as the Mayor for the City of Edgewater and served on city council before that. Kristian first became interested in politics after working as a volunteer for Rep. Sue Schafer of House District 24. Kristian is a social worker at the Jefferson Center for Mental Health and has a passion for mental health, criminal justice and veteran support. Kristian has served as the council liaison for Edgewater Parks and Recreation, has served as a volunteer for Edgewater's Senior Connections, and served as a member of the First Judicial District Criminal Justice Coordinating Committee.

Stephanie Carlile

Deputy city clerk, City of Englewood scarlile@englewoodgov.org

Stephanie Carlile serves as the deputy city clerk with the City of Englewood.

Tamra Norton

Marijuana impact grant program manager tamra.norton@state.co.us

Tamra has been with the Department of Local Affairs since 1999 and is the program manager for Colorado's new Marijuana Impact Grant Program. She was previously the department's formulaic grants program manager, which included the Conservation Trust Fund and Direct Distribution programs, and served as the agency's environmental compliance officer. She has also worked with the Nevada League of Cities and Municipalities. Tamra has a bachelor's degree in behavioral science. She has two teenage girls, enjoys leisure travel and painting.