DRCOG ELECTS ITS 2014 LEADERS; JACK HILBERT IS DRCOG CHAIR

Feb. 20, 2014 (Denver, Colorado) -- The Denver Regional Council of Governments (DRCOG) has elected its 2014 officers. Elected Feb. 19 to lead the regional council are:

- Douglas County Commissioner Jack Hilbert as chair;
- Lone Tree Council Member Jackie Millet as vice chair;
- Boulder County Commissioner Elise Jones as secretary; and
- Cherry Hills Village Mayor Doug Tisdale as treasurer.

Bennett Mayor Sue Horn is immediate past chair.

“This slate of officers is well-equipped to lead the Board this year as it collaboratively addresses a number of important issues, not the least of which is the adoption of the Metro Vision 2040 plan,” said DRCOG Executive Director Jennifer Schaufele.

Additionally, the Board elected the following members to serve one-year terms on the DRCOG Administrative Committee.

- Boulder Council Member Suzanne Jones
- Centennial Mayor Cathy Noon
- Greenwood Village Mayor Ron Rakowsky
- Longmont Council Member Gabe Santos
- Northglenn Mayor Joyce Downing

The Administrative Committee, which oversees the regional council’s fiscal, contractual and personnel operations, is composed of DRCOG’s officers and representatives of each county and city in the region with populations exceeding 120,000. The remaining members are elected directly by the DRCOG Board.

The Denver Regional Council of Governments is a nonprofit collaborative association governed by a Board of Directors representing county and municipal governments. Board members work together to make life better in the Denver region for people of all ages, incomes and abilities. Through Metro Vision, the plan to manage growth over the next 25 years, the region's local governments work cooperatively to address development, land use, transportation, environmental quality and older adult issues.
