

2022-2025 TIP subregional share second call for projects

Denver Regional Council of Governments staff is soliciting requests for funding of eligible Subregional Share projects for the 2022-2025 Transportation Improvement Program. This is the second of four calls for projects to allocate the 2022-2027 fiscal year funding to both the current 2022-2025 TIP and upcoming 2024-2027 TIP.

This announcement serves as the official notice of the DRCOG Subregional Share Call for Projects for the fiscal year 2022-2025 air quality and multimodal projects. Available funding includes federal Congestion Mitigation/Air Quality, Transportation Alternatives, Carbon Reduction Program and state Multimodal Transportation and Mitigation Options funds. An estimated $161 million in DRCOG-allocated funds will be available for this subregional share call, with the following amounts targeted for project selection to each of the following subregions:

- Adams County: $24.9 million
- Arapahoe County: $30 million
- Boulder County: $16 million
- Broomfield, City and County: $3.9 million
- Denver, City and County: $39 million
- Douglas County: $16.7 million
- Jefferson County: $26.6 million
- Weld County (southwest portions within DRCOG only): $4 million

Call for projects guidelines:

- The call is being conducted under guidance set within the adopted Policies for TIP Program Development. A quick guide is also available.
- Project sponsors must have attended at least one of the two previous TIP trainings in February 2022 to be eligible to submit an application. If no one from your agency attended, or if you'd like to confirm someone did attend, please contact DRCOG staff.

- Projects requiring Colorado Department of Transportation and/or Regional Transportation District concurrence must submit request forms to those agencies no later than May 13, 2022.
- The application to be used for this call for each subregion, along with additional call details, can be found on the 2022-2025 TIP Development webpage. In addition to the information found on this webpage and in this email, the first page of each application contains relevant information.
- Transportation and other data to assist applicants in completing their application can be obtained from the 2022-2025 TIP Data Resources webpage. Details include a link to the TIP Data Hub, which includes the TIP Data Tool (a web mapping tool to assist applicants with spatial analysis questions on the application) and links to download data for use outside of the TIP Data Tool.
- Project sponsors must submit application(s) and other required and optional documentation from a link located within the TIP Data Hub no later than 3 p.m. on Friday, June 24.
- Once the call closes, DRCOG staff will confirm project eligibility, post all received materials and prepare scoring sheets for each subregion. Scoring sheets will then be passed along to each subregion to begin their scoring, discussion and recommendation process. Each subregion will have approximately one month to prepare a recommendation to the DRCOG committees and Board of Directors.
